"Mother Machree"

There's a spot in my heart which no colleen may own,
There's a depth in my soul never sounded or known:
There's a place in my mem'y, my life, that you fill,
No other can take it, no one ever will.

Sure I love the dear silver that shines in your hair,
And the brow that's all furrowed, and wrinkled with care.
I kiss the dear fingers, so toil-worn for me,
Oh, God bless you and keep you, Mother Machree!

Ev'ry sorrow or care in the dear days gone by,
Was made bright by the light of the smile in your eye;
Like a candle that's set in a window at night
Your fond love has cheered me, and guided me right.

Health Lecture Highly Appreciated

Mr. F. T. Cook of the provincial health department, addressed meetings in the United church on Thursday afternoon and evening, the former being for school pupils. There was a good attendance on both occasions and all were greatly interested in the matter presented by the speaker, which was illustrated by moving pictures. Mr. Cook is always a welcome visitor to Champion and every one will look forward to future visits here in his capacity as health lecturer.

High School Lit. Will Entertain

The big event of the Christmas season will take place in the Champion community hall, Friday Dec. 20. The Champion high school Literary Society and the public school are uniting to put on a Christmas entertainment. The main feature of the program are to be an operetta, a pantomime, drills, Christmas songs and a play. Treats will be given to the children from the Christmas tree afterwards. In order to meet expenses there will be an admission charge of 50c for adults. Children admitted free.

C.W.L. Bazaar Saturday, Nov. 30

The C.W.L. bazaar will be held in the community hall on Saturday, November 30. W. C. Hoskins returned from Vancouver this week. He reports the family all well and enjoying life in Vancouver.

United Church of Canada

A group of ministers were together swapping stories and experiences. One asked, "how soon after presiding a certain sermon may a minister safely repeat it?" Various replies were given, two years, one year, six months. Then said one, "The next Sunday." He added that he had done so and had gone calling among the people on the week following and no one had said anything about it (perhaps through embarrassment). Possibly the editor of this paper believes such a course practicable for the minister; how would it be for the minister to try it whenever the announcement of text and subject are repeated from the previous week in place of the successive one? Let him know, it would save a great deal of work.

Sunday Dec. 1st
Sunday school, 11 a.m.
Blossom school at 3 p.m.
Subject—"The Fruit of the Spirit is Peace."

A hearty invitation is given to all the young people of the community to attend this service which is being planned with particular thought being given to young people.

The other day a railway telegraph inspector called at a country station in the ordinary course of duty. While he stood looking about him the instrument on the table began to rap out a message which his expert ear enabled him to read without difficulty. It was from the clerk at the next station down the line and it said: "Inspector going round today, poking his nose into everything. Look out!" The inspector replied back: "Warning too late. Inspector's nose already poked in here!"

P.T.A. Reception Largely Attended

A large crowd gathered in the new school on Monday evening when a reception was held by the P.T.A. for the teachers, several teachers from the rural schools being invited. Mrs. W. S. Ryan took the chair for the election of new officers and Mrs. E. Freeze for the social part. A program followed in which special mention might be made of the high school quartette, R. I. Baker accompanying them at the piano, and community singing led by G. M. Campbell. The new officers are as follows:

President—Mrs. E. H. Freeze.
Vice-President—R. Gardner.
2nd Vice-President—G. F. Smith.
3rd Vice-President—F. Caldwell.
Secretary—Mrs. Geo. Dupue.
Treas.—Mrs. G. M. Campbell.
District Representative—R. I. Baker, school staff.
Champion District—G. A. Orr.

"That a committee from this meeting make arrangements to meet the manager of the Gas company, and that Messrs. McIsaac, Butchart and Messenger be the personnel. They will meet the gas officials in Calgary on Wednesday next to see what can be done in the matter, reporting at a meeting to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 11th.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The Burin peninsula on the coast of Newfoundland suffered severely from earthquake and a tidal wave recently, over twenty lives being lost. The harbor was left with so little water as to prevent the entrance of vessels.

Two and one quarter million dollars is the amount estimated to be realized from the gasoline tax by the Province of Alberta this year. This is one of the items which made a big surplus possible.

Christmas is again in the near future and even now preparations are under way for the celebration of this greatest of all holidays. Merchants have ingredients for the Christmas cake in stock and Christmas cards are being looked for. To the young Christmas cannot come too often; the old wonder how it can occur so frequently.

While everyone would have liked to have seen the oil well a successful venture, the failure at the first location, particularly when the trouble did not include a dry hole, does not remove the fact that this section is geologically favorable to the existence of an oil pool below the surface. There is little doubt future efforts to locate this will be more successful.

All records for deaths from automobile accidents were broken during the four-week period ended Nov. 2, 1929, when, according to figures revealed by the U.S. department of commerce recently, 78 cities in the United States reported 840 deaths from that cause. The largest number previously reported was for the four-week period ending Dec. 1928, when the total was 771.

Speed alone, it is within reason and having due regard to highway conditions, volume of traffic on the highway, or which might be expected to be on the highway, and the condition of the vehicle is not the dominating factor in highway accidents. Reckless, negligent or careless driving is the cause of most of the highway fatalities and lesser accidents. It would therefore appear to be but the natural evolution of highway regulation with the increase in width and improvement in the type of construction of our highways, the marvelous improvement in the mechanism of the motor vehicle, and the traffic congestion problem which is facing so many provinces, states and countries, to increase the maximum allowance speeds or remove altogether the arbitrary limits, and allow any speed which is reasonable and proper. There will always, of course, be conflict of opinion as to what is "reasonable and proper," and the law will have to deal with those drivers with reckless tendencies. —Good Roads Magazine.

Nick Taitinger of Claresholm seems to be the only resident of Southern Alberta to take a prize at the Toronto Royal show. He was placed fourth for two-rowed barley.

The United States tariff bill is still far from completion and a considerable time will elapse before it is in operation. It is unlikely it will be recognizable as the bill originally introduced and passed by congress.

The Baker school bill is under fire again, in this instance convention of municipalities being the organization involved. It was pointed out that the control of school affairs would pass from the ratepayers to officials appointed by the government, and also that the new act would be unduly expensive and unworkable.

In order to make adjustments for next year's business all Ford assembling plants will be closed down for from 10 days to two weeks. Some are already closed and others will close as the stock on hand is worked up. They will not close simultaneously but a few at a time.

Vulcan Lodge A.F. & A.M., celebrated the raising of its hundredth member on Nov. 19th. Not that Vulcan has not had over 100 members since its institution in 1913, but this occasion celebrated the achievement of 100 fully paid up active members of the lodge at the present time.

Two billion dollars have been pledged by manufacturers and capitalists of the United States at the request of President Hoover to prevent any slump in trade as a result of the recent speculative panic on wall street.

the dining room of the Savoy hotel being kept open for the convenience of tourists and travellers. As a policy it may be good business, but with the situation existing in Champion it does not seem to have anything to recommend it. The eating facilities here are already too extensive, if the prosperity of the country is to be taken into consideration. There are two restaurants operated by English speaking people and three Chinese restaurants, and they are really all well operated. There is no business for a sixth place and forcing one in the hotel will only further cripple the places already finding difficulty in making ends meet, much less make any real money. There is every reason for believing that any real understanding of the situation would result in a different attitude on the part of the Liquor Board.

Entertain Husbands
December 11th

The Women's Institute have decided on December 11th as the date on which the members will entertain their husbands in the community hall. Like other innovations introduced by the W. I. this may be relied upon as being the one big evening for the married man, who will be the recipient of a Christmas present as well as being entertained during the evening by some other man's wife.

K. R. McLean, R.O. of Anderson & McLean, Night Specialists 298 8th Ave. West, Calgary, will make his monthly visit to Champion Friday, December 20, at the Drug Store.

The Singing Fool

By HUBERT DAIL
Copyright, 1918, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.

SYNOPSIS
Al Stone, singing waiter at Blackie Joe's New York night club, is loved by Grace Parre, the cigar girl, but he doesn't know it. He marries Molly Winton, a ballad singer, and wins fame as a composer of popular songs. When their baby, Junior, is about two years old, Molly dies in an automobile accident. Her best friend, she and Jerry take the child Al adores and sail for France. Al, completely broken by the loss of his wife, disappears from Broadway and becomes a drifter. One day Grace Parre sees him on the street, but he runs away. Grace starts a search for him, which ends in failure. But the image of Grace remains vividly in Al's mind.

CHAPTER XXIII.
Something of Al's old generous spirit toward Grace returned as he thought of her. How concerned her expression had been yesterday as she stared at him from the street. Yet his feeling toward her was not strong enough to overcome the resistance of his desire to separate himself from the old life.

In spite of all that, however, the memory of her face remained in his mind. Perhaps it was this memory that brought him up sharply about three o'clock one morning before that child seemed strangely familiar. Surely he knew these outside steps and that entrance. It was Blackie Joe's place.

Slowly, scarcely knowing what he was doing, Al mounted the shabby stairs toward the little gleam of light he saw at the top. Yes, he was sure of the place now; an intense longing possessed him to see the inside of the old familiar place where he had won his earliest triumphs. Only a few years had passed since those happy-go-lucky nights, but the time seemed like a century.

He stopped before the heavy, bolted door. It was a new door, much stronger than the one he had known. The many raids of the prohibition agents had forced Blackie to take additional precautions; his place was better guarded now.

Al knocked against the panel set high in the door and presently it opened. A strange face passed at him, and the eyes became more suspicious every moment, as their owner looked him up and down, noting his disheveled condition.

"Is Blackie Joe here?"
"Who wants to know?" asked the guard curiously.

"I do. I know him."
There was a pause, then: "Owan, beat it! He's got no time for the likes of you!"

The panel closed with a slam. Al, nodding listlessly, began to descend the stairs. He shrugged his shoulders—it didn't matter.

Inside, Blackie had been standing fairly near the door. "Who wants

"PINKHAM'S COMPOUND IS WONDERFUL"

Read This Letter from a Grateful Woman

"Vancouver, Ont.—'I think Lydia B. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is wonderful. I have had six children of my own, and my youngest child is now only eight months old. I have taken your medicine before each of them was born and have had certainly no trouble. I urge my friends to take it as I am sure they will receive the benefit from it.'—Mrs. M. J. MURPHY, Vancouver, Ontario."

W. N. O. 1813

Blackie. This was just the shell of the old Al; Blackie felt how strong that apparently listless resistance of his would be to any come-back. Nevertheless, he leaned forward and said earnestly:

"Al, you don't have to tell me how you feel—I know. It may seem strange to you, but I've been out once myself, in the same way, by a woman. For a while I thought there was no use living; then the day came when someone gave me a good stir talking to it. I decided to fight my way up again, and I did. I decided I wouldn't let one blow put me down for the count!"

"Blackie, the reformer," murmured Al. An expression somewhere between a smile and a sneer curved the corners of his mouth.

Blackie leaned back in his chair, hurt, but determined not to show it. In the old days Al could never have made a sardonic and bitter rejoinder like that.

"Do you still love Molly?" Blackie asked incredulously.

"No!" The sharp denial was the first show of life Al had shown. Blackie smiled in approval. Then Al seemed to think that some further explanation was needed. "She'd do for me and I'd have to clean her out of my mind. I did that, then I tried to write. But I found I couldn't get interested. It was no use."

Just then a waiter stuck his head in the door and told Blackie a customer wanted to speak to him. "Blackie rose.

If Baby's Own Tablets are given on the first sign of trouble, the baby will soon be right again. Concerning the Tablets Mrs. E. G. Carver, Lyndale, P. E. writes: "I always keep Baby's Own Tablets in my house. They are a wonderful help in keeping my baby well."

Workers Helped By Science

One Detector Located New Body and Furnished Work For Discharged Miners

The practical ways in which science helps working people in demonstrating the value of science in the work of the miner. A lead mine in Derbyshire had "pestered out" two young schoolmasters. Invented an ore detector, but about the same time the two young schoolmasters had been discharged. With the detector they located a new lead-ore body, 1,000 feet under the surface. They figured it was worth about $250,000. The mine owners, having faith in science, put the miners back to work again, and the mine is working full tilt. Po-ticians continually promise miracles to help working folk. Science performs the miracles.—Vancouver Sun.

She: "What would you do if I should cry?"

He: "Hang 'em a sign, 'Wet Paint!'"

Long Lived War Leaders

Four Who Bore Heavy Burdens Have Become Octogenarians

For months before his death Stresemann was a man broken in health, anxiously watched by relatives, friends and physicians, kept to a rigid diet, sent to bed early—he was an invalid, indeed, ere he had reached his fiftieth birthday. His nephew, on the other hand, celebrated his eighty-second birthday, which fell on the day before Stresemann's death, by going on a hunting trip, which was cut short by the Minister's death.

Ten years of peace killed Gustav Stresemann; three wars—one the most terrible in history, in which he was the supreme leader on one side—have proved insufficient to lay Paul von Hindenburg low. Can it be that we have heard far too much about the terrors of war, far too little about those of peace? It would seem so—at least in so far as the longevity of war leaders is concerned.

Today, fifteen years after the outbreak of the World War, and eleven years since its close, there are four old men who can proudly boast that, despite having borne heavy burdens of leadership between 1914 and 1918, they have nevertheless become octogenarians. Hindenburg is one of them; others, two are military men, Joffre and Mackensen—and the other a civilian, who was at the head of his country's war-time government at a time of acute crisis—Georges Clemenceau.

Certain morbid conditions must exist in the stomach and intestines before a man can live so long. They must exist as long as these morbid conditions exist and spare the child suffering, use Miller's Worm Powders. They will correct the digestive irregularities by destroying the worms, conditions favorable to worms will disappear, and the child will have no more suffering from that cause.

"Thou also shalt seek strength."—Nahum III. 11.

We ask not that our path be always bright.

But that Thou lead us to walk therein brightly.

For this we pray.

—William Burleigh.

If thou look to thyself, thou shalt be able of thyself to accomplish nothing. But if thou trust in the Lord, strength shall be given thee from Heaven, and the world and the flesh shall be made subject to thy command.—Thomas A. Kempis.

Should we feel at times disheartened and discouraged, a comforting thought, a simple movement of the heart towards God, will renew our powers. Whatever He may demand of us, He will give us at the moment the strength and courage that we need.—Fenelon.

POINTS OF VIEW WORD PICTURE OF NORTH-LAND

Toronto.—A vivid word picture of Canada's new northwest development and a vision of great strides in transportation by air, land and sea that would centre about Churchill in northern Manitoba, marked the address of John W. Dufco, managing editor and vice-president of the Winnipeg Free Press, before the Empire Club here.

Speaking at the club luncheon at the Royal York Hotel, Mr. Dufco laid out a new development in Canadian transportation through the utilization of the northwest passage. With Churchill as the terminus of the new water route, a saving in freight rates and distance would be effected and the bonds of empire more closely drawn together.

With the growth of the great trans-continental railway extending westward to the Pacific as new discoveries in air transportation rapidly show one another, he foretold a new era of air lines leading to Europe and Asia with Churchill as the greatest junction point on the North American continent. As direct results of the new water route, Mr. Dufco envisioned mighty shipments of grain moving from the northwest to Europe and the old world and return cargoes of Welsh anthracite coal that would find ready markets 500 miles from Hudson Bay and would eliminate transportation of Pennsylvania anthracite.

Resumption of Canada's cattle trade with Great Britain, he stated, may be brought about by the new route, where there would be a saving of 200 miles as compared to the old route. "We have lost our cattle trade with Great Britain," he said, "and we may be shut out of the United States."

All importations into western Canada, he pointed out, could come via the new route to the northwest in capacity of that route during the season. Great developments would also be effected in the Peace River district, "which will be nearer Liverpool by the new route than via the Pacific."

Named For Cattle Judging

Three Farm Boys To Represent Canada in Great Britain

Toronto.—Three young farm lads, holding high aggregate scores in the cattle club contests of the Canadian National Railways at the Royal Winter Fair, have been selected to represent Canada next summer in the international cattle judging contest to be held in Great Britain in which they will contest from teams all over Britain.

The successful boys, Clifford Baldwin, Barrie, Ont.; Cedric Kirkpatrick, Warrick, N.B.; and Gordon Campbell, of Stevierville, N.S.

British Cadets Coming

Will Attend Annual Meet in 1930 Of Canada Rifle Association

Ottawa.—Cadet contingents from Great Britain will attend the annual shoot in 1930 of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association, it was announced in a letter received by the Department of National Defence from Sergeant-Captain R. J. F. H. Grisdale, honorary organizer of the Imperial Cadet Association.

The contingent of 19 cadets will be headed by Major J. M. West, Shrewsbury Officers' Training Corps, an honorary commandant.

Ask For British Control

Apia, British Samoa.—A petition requesting the King of England to take the control of Samoa from New Zealand, and to give it directly to England, was lodged with the British minister here for transmission. The petition was signed by 265 natives of the "Mata" organization of natives, which represents about 90 per cent of the Samoans.

Occupy British Backs

Welsheim, Germany.—A battalion of French infantry has arrived here and taken over the barracks recently occupied by the British troops in occupation. Despite statements to the contrary, some quarters believed that the French intend to send detachments of troops to various places in Britain's former area of occupation.

Logging in B.C. Curtailed

Victoria.—Drastic curtailment of logging operations is being effected at the Vancouver Island camp in view of the reduced activity generally throughout Oregon, Washington, and British Columbia.

Good Market For Wheat

British Will Purchase Grain Stored in Canada Says Expert

Toronto.—"In light of my experience in England and from reports I have received concerning the wheat supply in other countries, I see no reason why the millions of bushels of Canadian wheat at present in storage should not be sold at satisfactory prices before next year's yield," said W. A. Wilson, Canadian agricultural representative in London, England, upon his arrival here from the Old Country.

With an intimate knowledge of the wheat situation, Mr. Wilson did not hesitate to say that in his opinion the time had come when Canada's wheat, at present filling the giant elevators at different points throughout the West, would move toward the great British market.

The Canadian agricultural representative declared that statistics he had been able to gather on the wheat situation in Europe all pointed toward big purchases of Canadian wheat before the 1930 crop.

Royal College Of Physicians

Sixty Leading Figures in Canadian Medicine Meet at Ottawa

Ottawa.—The Royal Canadian College of Physicians met here today, its first session since its formation in 1910, to begin when 60 leading figures in Canadian medicine met here. The college was provided for by the last session of parliament, and has as its purpose the foundation of a standard of specialization in the medical profession, and to act as the headquarters of the college.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. John C. MacAlpne; vice-presidents, Dr. F. N. C. Starr and Dr. Duncan Graham; secretary, Dr. John C. MacAlpne; registrar-secretary, Dr. T. C. Ross, Toronto.

The original charter fellows as designated in the act of parliament included 60 of the leading university professors in medicine in the nine medical schools in Canada, and these were present and were sworn in.

Heavy Air Mail

Thousands Of Letters Are Awaiting Opening Of Northern Service

Edmonton.—One hundred thousand letters are at the central post office of Edmonton awaiting the opening of the mail service to the north country, it was estimated by F. N. C. Starr, superintendent of the Edmonton post office, today. The post has not been reached yet as more first flight letters are being received daily.

Three machines will in all likelihood be required for opening the service. Two of them will be extra aeroplanes for handling the large volume of letters sent here by first flight cover collections.

Nothing definite has been settled as yet in regard to the date of opening the northern service, as this will start about as soon as there is sufficient snow on the rivers for the machines to land on skis.

Wolves Invade Moscow

London, England.—An invasion of hordes of wolves in the crowded suburbs of Moscow was described in a Daily News despatch from the Soviet capital. The despatch said that the wolves had attacked adults and children and had devoured two small children. Moscow's suburbs recently have been overcrowded with peasants who have set up temporary homes while awaiting permission to migrate to Canada.

Sale Of Coal Discussed

London, England.—Right Hon. J. H. Thomas informed the House of Commons today that he had a number of further consultations with coal and shipping interests concerned in the increased sale of British coal in Canada. He had raised a number of questions which would require careful consideration and consequently he had made no further statement at present.

Would Shorten Working Hours

Winnipeg.—The Dominion was requested in a resolution sent by Mayor Dan McLean, to take under consideration a plan to shorten the working hours of men in Canada. Details of the plan or to what extent the working day should be cut were not divulged. It is stated to involve employment of hundreds of men now out of work throughout the country, Mayor McLean said.

Would Retain Plant

Moose Jaw, Sask.—Recommendation of the Moose Jaw power plant be retained as a municipally-owned utility and opposition to its proposed disposal, it is stated to have been in the report to the Trades and Labor Council by a special committee. The report was adopted.

PROBLEM FOR LEAGUE CREATED BY MENNONITES

Ottawa, Ont.—Cable advice received from Geneva, Bern and Warsaw indicates clearly that the exodus of refugee Mennonites from the Soviet republics is increasing in greater proportions and that while there has been no suggestion that Canada should consider taking more than 5,000 of them, the number that will have to find new homes somewhere in the world may reach the staggering total of 100,000 persons.

The 5,000 Mennonites who gathered in the environs of Warsaw a few weeks ago and concerning whom the Canadian government was approached by the German foreign office, appear now to have been met by the advance guard of a constantly swelling stream of Mennonites. It is claimed that the entire Mennonite population of Russia, which has been increasing steadily for 150 years since the great Queen Katherine offered the sect sanctuary from religious persecution, will leave the republic within a few months upwards of 100,000 Mennonite refugees will have left Russia and will be facing starvation unless rescued by the League of Nations or the governments of Europe.

Hos. J. MacAlpne, head of the refugee commission of the League of Nations, has communicated by cable with the Canadian government and has stated that the League will intervene in aid of the homeless Mennonites and will see that food and shelter can be provided in Europe and at the expense of the League until next spring.

This is a menace to remove any immediate danger of these people dying of exposure or starvation. It is reported that the League has learned here that the Mennonites are not leaving Russia because of religious persecution, but because they claim that they have been reduced from a wealthy and thriving community to starvation by the exactions of the Soviet government. Their accumulated savings in money have been confiscated and their crops, each year, have been taken from them, they claim, that there was no alternative except to stay in Russia and starve or to throw themselves upon the mercy of Europe, and hope for assistance to establish homes for themselves in the western world.

As far as the immigration department is concerned, the answer of Premier Anderson to Bishop Towles is taken as being opposed to the movement of any Mennonite into Saskatchewan other than relatives of those in the province. Negotiations are under way with Manitoba and Alberta. Unless these provinces are willing to accept the Mennonites, the Dominion will decline to permit them.

It is felt that the League of Nations will carry the refugees over the winter and that there is plenty of time to consider very carefully the question of policy involved in bringing them to Canada.

Two Noted Authors Ill

London, England.—Two of Great Britain's best known authors—Rudyard Kipling and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle—arrived in poor health. The British Broadcast Corporation announced Kipling had cancelled a proposed radio speech December 12, because he had been ordered abroad for his health.

Sir Arthur, driven abroad by overwork at his home at Cromborough in Sussex, has cancelled all engagements for the next few months.

To Aid in Industrial Development

The rapid development in power projects and other engineering works at widely separated points throughout the country has created a demand for rolling stock capable of handling unusually heavy and bulky shipments such as generators, rollers, etc.

In order to take care of business of this kind, the Canadian Pacific Railway recently put into service two depressed center all steel flat cars which were designed by the Mechanical Department and built at the Angus Shops.

These cars are 53 feet 9 inches long inside the coupler knuckles. The center portion is depressed so that the height from the rail to the top of the deck is 2 feet 4 inches, and the portion which is available for loading is 22 feet 7 inches long.

The weight is 87,000 lbs., and they will carry a load of 225,000 lbs. Six wheel trucks with roller wheels are used.

Makes Definite Change Against Communists

Cause Of Unrest In Africa Says Minister Of Justice

Pretoria, South Africa.—The definite charge that the activities of the Communist Internationale are behind the widespread unrest among natives in the Union of South Africa was made in the course of a long address by Hon. Oswald Piize, Minister of Justice, before the House of Assembly.

Numerous organizations, closely allied with or at least in close touch with the Third Internationale, are responsible, the minister stated, for fanning the unrest which came to a head at Durban recently, when the government was forced to raid the native compounds and arrest about 6,000 natives who had refused to pay the poll taxes.

The minister also declared that unless the danger was checked shortly by the police, rioting on a large scale would be deferred within 12 to 18 months time.

Earthquake Shakes Liner

Vessel, 60 Miles Out At Sea, Receives Vibrations From Shore

New York.—The earthquake which was felt along the coast from New York to Halifax recently, also shook the liner "Olympic," 60 miles out at sea, from stem to stern, her commander reported on arrival here from Southampton and Cherbourg.

It provided an alarming experience for the passengers of the Olympic, for they did not know what had happened. They were afraid she had hit a submerged wreck and perhaps damaged her hull.

The vibration was so severe, he said, that it shook out the electric lights in the main hall, and the passengers rushed to the promenade deck to find out what had happened.

RECEIVE WORD OF SAFETY OF McALPINE PARTY

Winnipeg.—A line across northern rivers made a treacherous 290-mile fight to Fort Resolution, on Great Slave Lake, in the Northwest Territories, bringing the first word of the MacAlpne explorers to have been received in ten days.

Alone, Andy Crulickshank, pilot in the aerial relief expedition, under the command of Captain Guy S. Blanchet, arrived at Fort Resolution and reported Colonel C. D. H. MacAlpne and his party safe at Fort Reliance on McLeod Bay, where they have been landed since Tuesday, November 12.

Without means of communication with the outside world, Crulickshank undertook the dangerous mission from Fort Reliance to ascertain landing conditions and to report the party's safe arrival at Fort Reliance.

Radio reports received by the relief pilot were not assuring. To make matters worse, the 1,000-mile aerial trail to The Pas landing conditions are not favorable for the big all-weather "plane" of the Blanche expedition, which is being piloted by Crulickshank and his seven men to civilization. Only a thin trail of signals marked the way when landings are to be made and his intention of staying at Reliance, where the outside world takes in a gasoline and food supply base, until there is a big improvement.

Rescued from Cambridge Bay, Hudson Bay, west of Victoria Island, to where they had been taken by Eskimo hunters after long weeks of exploration, the party was landed to Bahadur Inlet, radio pilot of the expedition, taken over by Captain Blanchet and his aviators. Ten days ago a start was made from Reliance and within a few hours Crulickshank had reached the point of flight of 400 miles. Since then, the unfavorable weather in the north country has held them back.

Once at Resolution the next hop on the southern flight will be to 60 miles to Stony Rapids. From there the party will fly to Cranberry Portage, thence to The Pas.

At Resolution the Canadian corps of engineers has a station and it was from this point Crulickshank's arrival was flashed.
